Captain Johnny Bones loved to sail the seven seas with some of the roughest shipmates that ever sailed. Captain Johnny Bones' ship was called Bloody Bones because every ship that crossed its path would be a bloody mess. When Captain Johnny Bones got through with the crew, there would be nothing left but bloody bones. When Captain Johnny Bones and his shipmates came aboard, they stole all the gold aboard and would slit every crew member's throats and watch their juggler vein squirt blood on the other dead bodies.

Just before Captain Johnny Bones and his men would climb aboard their ship Bloody Bones, they would roast the dead men's hearts over their burning bodies and eat their hearts to show that Captain Johnny Bones and his men were the toughest Pirates in the sea. Very few men in Captain Johnny Bones' ship would ever back talk him. If they did, they would either walk the plank or have their heads cut off, and a rope would be threaded through both ears then tied above their head, and the head would hang a couple of feet along the side of the ship.

When other Pirates dare come alongside Captain Johnny Bones' boat and see all of the severed heads along the bottom of the vessel that was enough to make any pirate ship retreat and head back home.

Captain Johnny Bones had a big ego and would love to attack any ship in its path, friendly or not. Regardless if another pirate ship was nearby, it was sure Captain Johnny Bones would fire upon that ship, so there was no avoiding the Bloody Bones ship at any cost. Captain Johnny Bones like to let his crew board the enemy ship and completely subdue them, and then one of his men would wave a shirt on a stick for Captain Johnny Bones to come aboard and enter the enemies Captains quarters where his men would have the Captain tied to a chair. Captain Johnny Bones would slit the Captains throat then cut the Captain's heart out and eat it while blood was dripping down his mouth and shout out to his men and say „Who is the roughest and toughest pirate of the sea." His men would answer „Captain Johnny Bones." One of Captain Johnny Bones' men shouted out „Captain Johnny Bones why don't you change your name to Captain Bloody Bones because you are the most bloodthirsty pirate of them all." Captain Johnny Bones said, „I like it; I like it."

As the men gathered up the enemy's gold all the dead men's bodies were placed in a pile and set on fire, and their hearts were cut out and eaten by Captain Bloody Bones and his men. Captain Bloody Bones and his men ruled the seas for many years until most of Captain Bloody Bones' men started dying from eating all those bloody hearts. Captain Bloody Bones' crew was down to a mere seven men including Captain Bloody Bones and to find men as rough and tough as his crew was his chance of finding anyone else was slim to none.

Captain Bloody Bones and his men were sitting ducks out in the lonely sea. Captain Bloody Bones' ship was sailing through the lonely sea for months without an enemy in sight. Captain Bloody Bones usually fought other pirate ships weekly, but since he wasn't feared anymore, ships would pass by and laugh. The end was near for Captain Bloody Bones and his men because a new pirate named Captain Sever Tooth wanted Captain Bloody Bones and his ship sunk.

Captain Sever Tooth got his name because whenever his men would take a ship over and it's gold Captain Sever Tooth would cut out the enemy's teeth while they were still alive for souvenirs.

The next day as the not so rough and most robust pirates of the sea were looking for an easy ship to take over. Captain Bloody Bones' ship happened to cross paths with Captain Sever Tooth's boat. Captain Sever Tooth and his crew outnumbered Captain Bloody Bones' men three to one, so Captain Bloody Bones and his men didn't stand a chance because at least three out of the seven men of his men were deathly ill.

Captain Sever Tooth's ship fired upon Captain Bloody Bones' ship, rendering it useless. Captain Sever Tooth boarded Captain Bloody Bones' boat and killed all six men in front of Captain Bloody Bones. Captain Bloody Bones watched as Captain Sever Tooth's men cut out his men's teeth while they lay there screaming in agony and there's nothing Captain Bloody Bones could do but watch. „Well, Well, I finally get to meet the roughest and toughest bloodthirsty pirate of the sea. Guess what looks like you're not so tough after all, Captain Sissy Bones. It looks like my men did a good job finishing off the rest of your crew and I've got six more sets of teeth to add to my collection. Did I say six, I meant to say seven sets of teeth? I didn't mean to leave you out, Captain Sissy Bones, sorry, I meant to say Captain Johnny Bones because the Captain always goes down with his ship just like you will once, I remove your teeth," laughed Captain Sever Tooth.

Captain Sever Tooth's men held Captain Bloody Bones down on the deck and cut out Captain Bloody Bone's teeth and then gathered all of Captain Bloody Bone's gold from his ship BLOODY BONES. Captain Sever Tooth set Captain Bloody Bones' ship THE BLOODY BONES on fire then climbed back aboard their ship SEVER TOOTH and watched Captain Bloody Bones ship and all of its men sink to the bottom of the sea.

Captain Sever Tooth and his men would be the most feared pirate's, of the sea for many years to come until the next roughest, and the most robust pirate ship would cross their path and take over the sea just like many pirates before them.
